BigTime Software, Inc.

BigTime IQ, a new pro-level online time and billing tool for accountants from BigTime Software, revolutionizes practice management workflow for small- and mid-sized firms. Putting the features described below at the user's fingertips, BigTime IQ virtually shifts the entire practice management workflow to mobile — making the dream of “anywhere accounting” a reality.

True to its name, IQ is the smartest time and billing app on the market today. Key features and benefits: Dashboard for at-a-glance analytics. IQ's dashboard allows users, managers and business owners keep their fingers on the pulse of real-time information that drives decision-making.

Whether it's time for the week or versus capacity, where tasks stand, or revenue trends, BigTime gives each user group the visuals to manage their day-to-day. Customizable time and expense capture. Our flexible, easy-to-use time tracking allow companies to create their own timesheet.

Whether it's simply tracking jobs, hour and work types — or if you need to include tasks, budgets, QB Class or custom fields -- BigTime can handle it. When doing payroll in QuickBooks, BigTime makes applying payroll items simple. Easy-to-use Invoicing for billing WIP faster. Our BigTime system allows you to streamline your billing process. Whether you are billing T&E, fixed fees, retainers or just creating an invoice on the fly, BigTime allows you create one or many invoices at a time.

Then we guide the invoice through the different phases including drafting, approving, posting (QB), sending and the most important part receiving payment.

Manager review made easy. As a manager or approver you can easily see the time,
