Intuit has launched the new 2019 QuickBooks Desktop Certification and 'What's New in QuickBooks Desktop' Recertification, which will enable accounting professionals to confidently use the new and improved features in the latest QuickBooks Desktop product and better serve their desktop clients. The new trainings are available to all members of the QuickBooks Desktop ProAdvisor Program (Deluxe or Premium).

New 2019 QuickBooks Desktop Certification

The new 2019 Desktop Certification features new ways of learning, including demonstrations that showcase the use of QuickBooks Desktop. Additionally, it spotlights the new 2019 QuickBooks Desktop features, including:

- Customer invoice history tracker points, which will be automatically added to their points balance as part of the recently redesigned ProAdvisor Program.

Further details on what's been changed, updated and improved in 2019 QuickBooks Desktop is available here.

Releasing “What’s New in 2019 QuickBooks Desktop” Recertification

Additionally, to help users stay up-to-date on what's new and improved in 2019 QuickBooks Desktop and maintain certification status, an optional “what's new” training is now available. This training focuses on features new to the product, preparing users for the 2019 recertification exam. The modules will be added periodically throughout the year as continued enhancements to 2019 QuickBooks Desktop are added to the product.

Finally, throughout 2019, Intuit will continue to invest even more into Desktop Training and Certification, ensuring accountants are best able to serve their small business clients. In summer 2019, Intuit plans to release a brand new Desktop Enterprise certification. Please stay tuned for more information on this update.
