To get started, users can access the setup wizard that guides new users through both company and employee setup. Crest Payroll uses an automated process, so users only need to enter time for an employee once. In addition, users can pay contractors in the application as well.

Once that information has been entered, Crest Payroll automates the rest of the payroll process, with users only needing to make any changes, such as changing an employee salary, or adding or terminating an employee. The application also supports multiple pay dates, so each client can have a separate pay date. In addition,

Crest Payroll support multi-state payroll, union pay, and custom pay types, as well as

Crest Payroll includes more than 40 standard payroll reports, with users able to create custom payroll reports using the custom report design features. In addition, all custom reports are able to be saved in Crest Payroll for future use. All Crest Payroll reports can be exported to Microsoft Word or Excel for further customization or saved in the application as a PDF with the option to share reports with clients via the included portal.

Crest Payroll includes a web-based timeclock for easy time tracking from any location, with all timeclock data able to be imported into Crest Payroll. Other options in Crest Payroll include Workers' Compensation insurance, an e-sign option, and HR resources including an online document center, expense management, paid time benefits, employee self-service capability, leave management, performance reviews, and training requests.

Crest Payroll offers both a client portal for clients to view payroll information and share data as well as a portal for employee to access their own personal data including paystubs, W-2s, and accrued vacation and sick time totals, with employees able to update personal information in the portal as well.

Crest Payroll offers both telephone and chat support, with a brief demo of the application available on the vendor website as well. A FAQ page answers common questions, and those interested in learning more can register on the Crest Payroll website to download a brochure.

Crest Payroll can be completely customized to reflect firm branding. Those interested in Crest Payroll can request a price quote directly from the vendor. There are no per-employee fees or other additional charges assessed, with users billed a flat rate each month.
