features available in the application, including Administration, Configuration, Transactions, Reports, and Returns. Users will also have access to summary cards which provide information such as Added This Month, Line Items, Certificate Warnings, and This Month totals, which update as a new return is calculated. CCH SureTax Calc has also reduced the number of data entry screens required by 30 percent, while also standardizing the user interface across the application.

SureTax Calc is completely customizable, making it easy to calculate more complex tax calculations including tax holidays. The application also allows users to configure specific business rules, nexus, and customize tax exemptions when necessary.

Search capability has also been updated in SureTax Calc, with users able to use a variety of parameters when searching the application including Customers, Areas, Quotes, SureAddress, Tax Applicability, and Transactions, with data in fields such as invoice number, transaction number, customer number, or transaction date range able to be used for search purposes as well.

Importing transactions has been updated as well, with SureTax Calc able to import a variety of data including a batch file, customer exemption certificates, locations, pass-through tax overrides, and SKUs.

Once a transaction has been entered into SureTax Calc, users have the option to review the transaction as well as view the actual calculation to ensure accuracy.

CCH SureTax offers seamless integration with a variety of applications including Microsoft Dynamics, NetSuite, Magento, SAP, and Salesforce Commerce Cloud.

Although CCH SureTax Calc can be used as a stand-alone application, when used with other SureTax applications such as Rates and Rules and Returns it can easily calculate the correct tax as well as create complete sales tax returns. As an added safeguard, SureTax Calc offers built-in address verification, automatically verifying
