

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us their specialty area with the sixth annual Standing Ovation award. The recipients, all talented CPAs age 40 and under, were acknowledged during AICPA & CIMA ENGAGE 2021.

Jul. 29, 2021

The American Institute of CPAs has honored nine young CPAs for contributions to their specialty area with the sixth annual Standing Ovation award. The recipients, all talented CPAs age 40 and under, were acknowledged during AICPA & CIMA ENGAGE 2021.

“A career in accounting offers so many different opportunities to work with individuals and businesses to help them reach their goals,” said Sue Coffey, CPA, CGMA, CEO – Public Accounting, Association of International Certified Professional

Hello. It looks like you’re using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us holding either the Personal Financial Specialist (PFS), Certified Information Technology Professional (CITP), Certified in Financial Forensics (CFF), or Accredited in Business Valuation (ABV) credential. Nominees must also be 40 years old or younger.

Personal Financial Planning Standing Ovation Honors

The two recipients of the Personal Financial Planning (PFP) Standing Ovation all hold the PFS credential. They are noted on the PFP Section website and acknowledged during the Advanced Personal Financial Planning track at AICPA & CIMA ENGAGE 2021. Examples of the contributions this group of CPAs has made to the profession include serving as a role model and trainer within the firm and helping shape the local high school accounting curriculum.

The 2021 PFP Standing Ovation recipients are listed below in alphabetical order:

- Eric Blazekovic, CPA/PFS, Griffiths, Dreher & Evans, PS, CPAs, Spokane, WA
- Blake Harrison, CPA/PFS, LBMC, Brentwood, TN

Technology Advisory Standing Ovation Honors

Seven CPAs who hold the Certified Information Technology Professional (CITP) specialty credential have been recognized for their contributions in the area of information technology. They were announced at the Practitioners and TECH+ conference at AICPA & CIMA ENGAGE. They will also be recognized on the AICPA Technology Hub website. This year’s recipients were recognized for their work advancing the CITP credential in each of their home states, their efforts to support social justice and social welfare, for volunteering to mentor start-up companies, and growing their firm’s practices overseas, among other accomplishments.

The 2021 Technology Advisory Standing Ovation recipients are listed below in Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

Accounting • Advisory • Technology

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved