- What are you doing to make a difference in the profession, your community, the world?
 - Several years ago I created and committed to a personal mission, to say “yes” to anything that scares me, both personally and professionally. Ever since that day, I have accomplished so much, and it has set me out on a path I otherwise may never have known. As a co-founder of a national not-for-profit, FountainHead RI, I have been part of one of the most talented group of leaders in the country, whereby we have taken something that previously didn't exist and created an ecosystem of over 1,100 business and community leaders. In doing so, we have helped to create a more inclusive, dynamic and better prepared professional community for years to come and is certainly one of my biggest and favorite accomplishments to-date.
