Lindsey Curley, CPA, CGMA – 2022 40 Under 40 Honoree

Senior Manager, Firm Services

AICPA & CIMA

- Started my accounting life working for sole proprietors and small accounting firms throughout high school, college, and the first three years after graduating which expanded my skillset by providing experience in a wide variety of roles and work.
- Currently working in my 11th year with the AICPA's Private Companies Practice Section (PCPS) where I lead various resource development initiatives and communications for PCPS members and am responsible for key membership bodies such as the top 100 US accounting firms. I also have the unique and amazing opportunity to interact with practitioners around the country from all firm sizes. Giving these CPAs a voice within the walls of the AICPA is so important to me. Spending time with real-life practitioners and creating a collaborative environment is critical to ensuring the AICPA delivers solutions that will truly have an impact.
- 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2021, 2022 "40 under 40" award recipient from CPA Practice Advisor
